

AFFIRMATIVE FAIR HOUSING MARKETING & RESIDENT SELECTION CRITERIA

Updated July 2025

PROPERTY OVERVIEW

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Seven Directions Apartments (the “Project”) is a 36-unit affordable apartment community located at 2946 International Boulevard in Oakland, California. The Project provides quality, affordable housing for income-eligible households and is designed to support long-term residential stability. Located along a major transit corridor in the culturally vibrant Fruitvale district, residents benefit from convenient access to public transportation, schools, health clinics, local businesses, and community services.

The Project is an affordable permanent rental housing community for extremely low-income to moderate income households.

Non-Referral Units & Lottery-Based Application Process

Thirty-five (35) units are Non-Referral Units; where 27 units will receive subsidy from the Oakland Housing Authority under the Section 8 Project-Based (PBV) program

These units will be filled through a lottery-based application process. Applications will be selected from a waiting list that is created through this lottery. Priority will be given to individuals who live or work in the City of Oakland.

Please refer to the preference criteria outlined below for more details.

Regarding Rental Assisted Subsidy units, the following preferences apply

1. For applicants who live or work in the City of Oakland at the time of the application interview and/or applicants that lived or worked in the City of Oakland at the time of submitting their initial application and can verify their previous residency/employment at the application interview, qualify for this preference.
2. For applicant families with two or more persons; or a single person applicant that is 62 years of age or older, and/or a single person applicant with a disability;
3. For veterans and active military personnel; and
4. Applicant families that are homeless at admission based on the McKinney Vento Act definition. Includes individuals and/or households fleeing or attempting to flee a domestic violence or stalker situation (See Addendum for McKinney Vento Act definition of homelessness.)
5. Any individual or family who is fleeing, or is attempting to flee, domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or other dangerous or life-threatening conditions in the individual's or family's current housing situation, including where the health and safety of children are jeopardized, and who have no other residence and lack the resources or support networks to obtain other permanent housing is considered homeless.

How to Apply for Non-Referral Units

The housing listing will be published on the following platforms:

- Alameda County Housing Portal
- Eden I&R / 211 Housing Database

To be considered for the lottery, applicants must complete an application during the open application period. Applications can be submitted by visiting the "How to Apply" page at EBALDC.org or directly through <https://ebaldc.securecafe.com/onlineleasing/seven-directions-apartments/guestlogin.aspx> once available.

If you are unable to access or complete the online application, you may contact our leasing office to request a reasonable accommodation or modification during the published open lottery period.

The following preferences apply For NON-Project-Based Section 8 units

1. Households displaced by City of Oakland code enforcement or redevelopment actions which, when referred by the City of Oakland, the Project shall rent the next available Assisted Unit to the household irrespective of waiting lists if the household is otherwise eligible for occupancy in the Assisted Unit. For purposes of this Section, a "displaced household" means a household in which a least one adult member has been displaced from a housing unit in Oakland as a result of any of the following:
 - a. City code enforcement activities, if the displacement has occurred within one year prior to the date of application.
 - b. A City-sponsored or City-assisted development project, if the displacement has occurred within one year prior to the date of application.
 - c. A "no fault" eviction from a rental unit in Oakland, if the eviction was completed eight (8) years or less prior to the date of application. For purposes of this paragraph, a "no fault" eviction means an eviction that is evidenced by an eviction notice from the property owner that does not state cause and that gives the tenant thirty (30) days or longer notice to vacate the unit; a "no fault" eviction shall include, but not be limited to an eviction as a result of an owner move-in under Municipal Code Subsection 8.22.360.A.8. or 8.22.360.A.9., owner repairs under Municipal Code Subsection 8.22.360.A.10., or owner removal of the unit from the rental market under Municipal Code Subsection 8.22.360.A.11. or Municipal Code Chapter 8.22, Article III, but shall not be limited only to evictions from units that are covered by any of the above laws. This preference shall apply to the initial rental or sale of a project unit and any subsequent rental or sale of a unit during the applicable affordability period established by the City.

2. Households who are neighborhood residents. For purposes of this Section, a "neighborhood resident" means a household with at least one adult member whose principal place of residence on the date of application is either within the Council District where the project is located or within a one-mile radius of said project.

3. Oakland residents and Oakland workers. For purposes of this Section, an "Oakland resident" means a household with at least one adult member whose principal place of residence on the date of application is within the City of Oakland. An "Oakland worker" means a household with at least one adult member who is employed by an employer located within the City of Oakland, owns a business located within the City of Oakland, or participates in an education or job training program located within the City of Oakland. This preference shall apply to the initial rental or sale of a project unit and any subsequent rental or sale of a unit during the applicable affordability period established by the City.

All preferences noted above require appropriate documentation.
